

GUEST SPEAKER SEMINAR

Open to all!

In conjunction with

Case Study

(Finance & Development in Emerging Asia I)

Course No. 5140723 A-Semester 2015

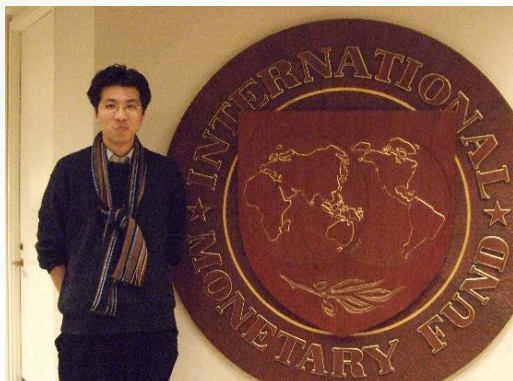

Policy Consulting with Member States: A Case Study of the Philippines

Speaker: Mr. Joji Ide

Former Economist, Asia and Pacific
Department, International Monetary Fund
(Deputy Head, Financial Institutions Division I, Bank of Japan)

Facilitator: Prof. Toshiro Nishizawa

Monday, October 26, 2015, 10:25-12:10
Ad 3 (Room 710)
Administration Bureau Bldg. 2

Mr. Joji Ide is Deputy Head of Financial Institutions Division I at Bank of Japan. He served as Chief Dealer at Foreign Exchange Division, Head of Market Intelligence Unit and a senior economist at Economic Research Division.

From March 2009 to March 2011, Mr. Ide was an economist at IMF's Asia and Pacific Department.

Mr. Ide was born in Tokyo in 1978. He has Bachelor's Degree of Law from The University of Tokyo and Master's Degree of Law and Diplomacy from the Fletcher School of Tuft University.