

LKYSPP Study Trip in Japan

In February 2014 students of Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, National University of Singapore (LKYSPP) are coming to Japan to conduct a week-long study trip. We are looking for GraSPP students who are interested in joining this trip.

Synopsis

The purpose of the trip is to provide opportunity for students of LKYSPP and GraSPP to study Japanese public policy through discussions and sight visit to actual stakeholders in the field of Japanese public policy, e.g. ministries, local governments, NGOs and relevant business enterprises. There will be funding available for students who help prepare the trip, which will be covering the major cost of the trip. This will also serve as a great opportunity to do networking between two top schools of Asia involving major actors of public policy in Japan.
