

Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, National University of Singapore
LKY GraSPP Day 2015
Call for Applications

This year marks the fifth time for Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy of National University of Singapore to conduct a study trip in Japan. As a host in Tokyo, Graduate School of Public Policy at the University of Tokyo is holding LKY-GraSPP Day, a student conference to discuss the hottest public policy topics of Japan on February 27th.

This year, we will be focusing on 'Earthquake disaster reconstruction',
'Declining birth and aging population of Japanese society',
'Japanese diplomacy'.

Please join this great opportunity to learn Japanese policy and create networks with future policy makers of Asia!
