

International Workshop Participation (University of California, San Diego) Information

The Graduate School of Public Policy will be holding a joint international workshop with the University of California, San Diego. Those who are interested in this workshop should read the entire description before submitting an application.

Based on the submitted documents, eligible candidates will be interviewed. Final candidates are selected based on their expertise, skills and sufficient English proficiency. Those who are selected for the second screening will be directly contacted with further information, including the date and time of the interview.

Students who participate in this workshop will be expected to submit a report on their experience to the Graduate School of Public Policy.

1) Location

School of Global Policy and Strategy University of California, San Diego
(Reference: <http://gps.ucsd.edu/>)
• La Jolla (San Diego)

2) Period:

2016 March, 8 (Wednesday) ~ March 12 (Saturday)

3) Theme

- ① The purpose of the workshop is to understand both leading edge scientific technology and innovation's social context based on the field of medical and life science, the innovate technology and balance between actual policy making, system, and ecosystem, and the cultivation of knowledge that is based on a global perspective
- ② To learn how to create scientific technological innovative policies that relate to the field of medicine and to develop a constructive procedure that is based on evidence

4) Selection Process: First Screening: Document, Second Screening: Interview

5) Application Document

(1) Curriculum Vitae (Free format, photo attached): One English Copy

- ※Write your past work experience in the "Notices" column (特記事項).
- ※Include TOEIC, TOEFL score under the "Licensee, Exams, Certificate, etc." column (免許・試験・資格等 (その他))
- ※Include other information in the "Notices" column (特記事項).

(2) Entry Sheet (word file)

In addition to a statement of interest, please write a short essay that explains what kind of solution is needed to promote innovation in the field of medicine, esp. from a cross-sectoral, integrative approach. The essay should be in Japanese within 1000 words or English 300 – 500 words.

6) Submission: Please email all documents to the following email

The Graduate School of Public Policy International Affairs Team (国際企画チーム) exchange@pp.u-tokyo.ac.jp

7) Deadline: 2016 February 22 (Monday) 17:00 Sharp

8) Miscellaneous:

- Travel Expenses (airplane fees, lodging, etc.) will be provided by The Graduate School of Public Policy (up to 150,000 yen)
- If you have further questions, please contact the International Planning Team via email (the above address).