

Open to all current students!

In conjunction with
Case Study (Finance and Development in Emerging Asia II)

GUEST SPEAKER SEMINAR

BANKING SECTOR SOUNDNESS AND THE ROLE OF INTERNAL AUDITING

by Ms. Ami Fujimoto
KPMG AZSA, LLC

Facilitator: Prof. Toshiro Nishizawa
[tnishizawa@pp.u-Tokyo.ac.jp]

Internal auditing is an important and pragmatic process which can be of significant value to all legal entities, both in the private and public sectors. This lecture introduces students to the basic idea of internal audit profession, purpose, and international frameworks as well as internal audit process. In addition, internal auditing in international organizations would be brought into focus in order to provide a comprehensive picture of the role of internal auditing and contribution to banking sector soundness.

10:25-12:00 Monday, June 20, 2016
Seminar Room 3 (Room 710)
7th Fl. Administration Bureau Building 2

Ms. Ami Fujimoto is a professional staff member at KPMG AZSA, LLC with a main focus on internal auditing for financial institutions. Prior to that, she served as a research associate at the Asian Development Bank Institute (ADB), assigned to the financial inclusion project in ASEAN countries. Her areas of interests are in mega and local banks' internal auditing, financial regulations and policies, and financial integration in Asia. Ms. Fujimoto holds a BS in Economics and Statistics from University of California, Berkeley, and MPP from the University of Tokyo.