OVERSEAS INFRASTRUCTURE FINANCE— ROLES OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR

by Mr. Akihiro Tanaka

Senior Manager for Project Finance Office, Hitachi, Ltd.

18:45-20:30 | Monday, June 12, 2017

Seminar Room 3 (Room 710)

7th Fl. Administration Bureau Building 2

Mr. Akihiro Tanaka is Senior Manager for Project Finance Office, Hitachi, Ltd. At Hitachi, he supports financial arrangement for overseas infrastructure projects in such sectors as water, healthcare, railways and power.

Prior to joining Hitachi in October 2013, he worked for the World Bank Group (IBRD, IDA, IFC, MIGA, ICSID) for more than ten years. Mr. Tanaka has contributed to IDA's capital replenishment negotiations with the shareholders and enhanced partnerships with donors and partners in IFC's Advisory Services operations for private sector development in emerging countries.

He started his career at the Export-Import Bank of Japan (currently Japan Bank for International Cooperation or JBIC) in 1992. As a loan officer, he took the lead in lending operations for Asian countries, such as Indonesia, Philippines, Turkey and Turkmenistan.

He holds an M.Phil. in development studies from University of Cambridge and a bachelor's degree in economics from Waseda University.
