GraSPP Policy Challenge (GPC) is a new initiative at GraSPP, in which students from different background collaborate and seek to improve their teambuilding and policy-making skills. Participants are tasked with responding to pressing real-world policy challenges as a group, and with designing policies and proposals in response to those challenges.

All GraSPP/STIG/GSDM students are strongly encouraged to apply. Finalist groups will be ultimately invited to present at the GPPN Student Conference* at Lee Kuan Yew School in Singapore in March 2019.

<Submit Your Proposal!>

Students are invited to identify an important policy challenge associated with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) that can be addressed through creative applied solutions be it via private, public or hybrid approaches. Students will work in teams and consider solution-oriented prototypes that use ICTs, policy innovation, and/or data analytics to address public policy challenges that have been identified by the SDGs below. The policy solution does not necessarily require a technological component, but should provide concrete solutions.

You will be tasked to develop creative solutions around the below core Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs):
