

Application Guidelines 2022

Master of Public Policy, International Program (MPP/IP)
Graduate School of Public Policy, The University of Tokyo

1. Program Information

Description

The Master of Public Policy, International Program (MPP/IP) at the Graduate School of Public Policy (GraSPP) offers a two-year interdisciplinary graduate-level professional degree for future policy experts.

MPP/IP seeks to nurture individuals who:

- aspire to play active roles as public policy professionals and leaders with high ethical standards in the international society utilizing specialized knowledge and practical competencies acquired at the graduate school;
- can proficiently evaluate current and future challenges, optimize policy responses, evaluate policy impacts, and build consensus among stakeholders; and
- have the competency necessary to apply fundamental knowledge in policy design, implementation and evaluation honed through a balanced study of law, politics and economics to successfully resolve policy challenges.

Policy Streams

MPP/IP offers two policy streams below for students to develop in-depth knowledge in their chosen fields.

- Economic Policy, Finance and Development (EPFD)
- Public Management and International Relations (PMIR)

Admission Categories

- MPP/IP admissions for fresh graduates and early career professionals
- MPP/IP admissions for professionals

MPP/IP admissions for fresh graduates and early career professionals are for fresh graduates or those with work experience of less than two years, who aspire to pursue their careers in public policy related areas after completing the program.

MPP/IP admissions for professionals are for those who have been working full time in government offices, NGOs, NPOs, companies, or international organizations at the time of application for at least two years or have at least two years of full time relevant work experience as independent professionals and aspire to pursue their careers in public policy related areas after completing the program. In this category, their work experience is an important criterion used in the admission process. They can apply for MPP/IP admissions for the category of fresh graduates and early career professionals if they choose to do so.

CAMPUS Asia Program Option

GraSPP offers the CAMPUS Asia Program which is a student exchange / double degree program between Peking University, Seoul National University, and the University of Tokyo. Applicants, who seek the CAMPUS Asia program option, should follow the application guidelines<sup>1</sup> on the CAMPUS Asia Program website.

Scholarships

GraSPP offers several scholarship opportunities for admitted MPP/IP applicants. Applicants who seek scholarships which require professional experiences should apply for the professionals admission category and carefully read “Scholarships”<sup>2</sup> on the GraSPP website .

2. Selection Process

Applicants shall be screened and selected based on holistic reviews of each applicant through a two-stage process: a) a document screening for all applicants and b) an oral examination for all shortlisted applicants.

After submitting the online application through the GraSPP Web Entry System<sup>3</sup>, a personalized link to the online timed video/written assessment platform will be sent to applicants.

The document screening is based on the evaluation of all the submitted application documents including the online timed video/written assessment materials.

After screening the submitted application documents, applicants, who passed the document screening process, will be invited to the oral examination. The oral examination will be conducted by an online interview.

Important Notes

If the applicant provides any false or misleading statement, incomplete or inaccurate information in any part of the application:

- the application may not be screened;
- the applicant may be denied admission; or
- the offer of admission may be withdrawn at any time, even after enrollment.
