

Provisional translation by The University of Tokyo
※Should any discrepancies or doubts arise between the English version and the Japanese version, the Japanese version will prevail

2020 JAPANESE GOVERNMENT SCHOLARSHIP FOR RESEARCH STUDENTS ·
UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS (UNIVERSITY RECOMMENDATION)
〔THE INTERNATIONAL PRIORITY GRADUATE PROGRAM〕

The Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology (MEXT or Monbukagakusho) offers scholarships, based on university recommendation, to international students wishing to study at Japanese universities as research students or undergraduate students under the Japanese Government Scholarship Program for 2020.

1. Qualifications

(1) Eligibility:

Research Students: International students with outstanding academic records (*1) who wish to enter Japan as a new student to study at a graduate level at this time.

Undergraduate Students: International students with outstanding academic records (*1) who wish to enter Japan as a new student to study at an undergraduate level at this time.

(1) Working adults should have a final university grade points of 2.30 or higher, while current students should have university grade points* of 2.30 or higher for their current course and are expected to maintain the same academic standards during the course of the scholarship program.

* Grade points should be calculated according to a formula specified by MEXT.

Furthermore, students must meet one of the criteria given in “(6) Language Skills” given below

(2) Nationality: Applicants must have the nationality of a country with diplomatic relations with the Japanese government. Applicants who have Japanese nationality at the time of application are ineligible. However, Japanese nationals that reside outside of Japan at the time of application, having dual citizenship with another country, and plan on relinquishing their Japanese nationality before arrival, may apply.

(3) Age:

Research Students: Applicants who were born on or after April 2, 1985.

Undergraduate Students: Applicants who were born on or after April 2, 1995.

However, exceptions may be given at the discretion of MEXT based their decision that the applicant could not apply at the time of the specified age due to the system or circumstances (compulsory military service, disruption/destruction of educational institutions due to armed conflicts, etc.) of their home country. Reasons of personal circumstances (financial, family, health reasons as well as circumstances relating to their university or employment, etc.) will not be considered.

This does not apply to those who have completed the Young Leaders Program and are enrolling in a doctorate program.

(4) Academic background:

Research Students: Applicants must have the necessary qualifications to be admitted to a graduate school of a Japanese university as a Master's or a doctorate candidate (including those who are deemed to be certain to satisfy this requirement by the time they enroll in university).

Undergraduate Students: Applicants who have completed 12 years of schooling overseas or completed a school that is equivalent to a high school (including applicants who are deemed to be certain to meet these conditions by the time they enroll in university. Applicants who have qualifications other than the aforementioned that qualifies them for entrance to a Japanese university).

(5) Field of Study:

Research Students: Applicants should apply for the field of study that they studied at their previous university or a related field. Applicants should select a field that they are able to research at their chosen host university in Japan.

Undergraduate Students: Applicants should apply for a field of study that can be taken at the accepting university.

(6) Language skills: Applicants must have the necessary proficiency in Japanese or English to be able to study or take part in research at a university in Japan.

Research Students:

○Japanese

- 1.) Applicants must have passed the Japanese Language Proficiency Test with a score of N2 or higher at the time of enrollment as a full time student.
- 2.) Applicants must have completed an educational program which has Japanese as the primary language of instruction that satisfies the entrance requirements to the Master's program or doctorate program at a Japanese graduate school.
- 3.) Applicants who are deemed by the accepting university to have Japanese proficiency equivalent to that given in 1.) above.

○English

- 1.) Applicants must have provable English proficiency test scores equivalent to B2 or above on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) at the time of enrollment as a full time student.
- 2.) Applicants must have completed an educational program which has English as the primary language of instruction that satisfies the entrance requirements to the Master's program or doctorate program at a Japanese graduate school.
- 3.) Applicants who are deemed by the accepting university to have English proficiency equivalent to that given in 1.) above.

Undergraduate Students:

○Japanese

- 1.) Applicants must have passed the Japanese Language Proficiency Test with a score of N2 or higher at the time of enrollment as a full time student.
- 2.) Applicants must have completed an educational program which has Japanese as the primary language of instruction that satisfies the entrance requirements to the Master's or doctorate program at a Japanese graduate school.

3.) Applicants who are deemed by the accepting university to have Japanese proficiency equivalent to that given in 1.) above.

○English

1.) Applicants must have provable English proficiency test scores equivalent to B2 or above on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) at the time of enrollment as a full time student.

2.) Applicants must have completed an educational program which has English as the primary language of instruction that satisfies the entrance requirements to the Master's program or doctorate program at a Japanese graduate school.

3.) Applicants who are deemed by the accepting university to have English proficiency equivalent to that given in 1.) above.

(7) Health: Those who have been determined by the University that studying in Japan will have no impact to their mental or physical health.

(8) Arrival in Japan: In principle, applicants should be able to leave their country and arrive in Japan between 1 and 7 April, 2020 for the Spring Semester. For the Fall Semester, applicants should arrive on the dates specified by their host university, which will usually be between two weeks prior to the beginning of the Fall Semester and two weeks after the semester has begun (generally in September or October).

*Note from UTokyo: The Fall Semester for UTokyo begins in September.

If applicants cannot arrive in Japan by the date specified, they must withdraw their application unless under unavoidable circumstances as deemed by MEXT. Furthermore, if applicants travel outside of the period specified above due to personal reasons, the cost of travel will not be paid.

(9) Visa Requirement: In principle, applicants should enter the country with a resident status of "Student" having obtained the visa prior to traveling to Japan. The visa is to be issued by the Japanese embassy or consulate in the applicant's home country. Those who already have other residency status (permanent resident, long-term resident, etc.) will be required to return to your country of nationality, change your status to that of "Student" and then travel to Japan. Furthermore, there is no guarantee that applications to change your status to that of "Permanent resident" or "long-term resident" etc. will be approved once you have completed your time as a Japanese Government Scholarship recipient.

It should be noted that any applicants who change their status from "Student" to any other residence status after their arrival in Japan will forfeit their right to be a recipient of the Japanese Government Scholarship from the moment they apply to change their status.

(10) Exclusion:

Applicants in the following categories are ineligible for the Japanese government scholarship. They must decline the scholarship offer if they are found to fit any one of the following criteria upon their selection.

- ① An active member of the military or a civilian employed by the military at the time of arrival as well as during the period of MEXT Scholarships;
- ② An applicant who is unable to travel to Japan within the period designated by MEXT or the host university;
- ③ A former recipient of a Japanese Government Scholarship in the past is ineligible unless he or she has had at least three years of research or working experience at the time of receiving the new scholarship after the completion of their previous scholarship. This does not apply to a research-student applicant, who (i) received training as a Japanese-studies student and later returned to a university from which he or she graduated (including those who are expected to graduate) in their home or another country, or who (ii) was an international student in Japan under the Japan-Korea Joint Government Scholarship Program for the Students in Science and Engineering Departments and later returned to South Korea, or who (iii) was an international student under the young leaders program. However, applicants who have been recipients of the MEXT Honors Scholarship are eligible to apply as it is not classed as a Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship.

- ④ An applicant who is currently applying for a Japanese Government Scholarship for other AY2020 programs (e.g. Teacher Training Student, etc.) at the same time.
- ⑤ An applicant who (i) is already enrolled in a Japanese university, institution, etc. under the “College Student” visa, (ii) is or plans to be enrolled in a Japanese university, institution, etc. as a self-supported international student between the times of application to the start of receiving this scholarship. This does not apply to self-supported international students who are currently enrolled or are expected to enroll at a Japanese university but can confirm at the time of application that they will return to their country of nationality, newly obtain a “student” visa before the start of the scholarship period and travel to Japan.
- ⑥ An applicant who is expecting to receive a scholarship from any source other than the Japanese government (MEXT) including those from their own government body after the start of the period of scholarship.
- ⑦ An applicant who is “expected to graduate” at the time of application and cannot provide proof of completing a degree by the designated deadline.
- ⑧ A Japanese national who has dual nationality with another country, and is not able to provide proof of relinquishing Japanese nationality by the day of arrival.
- ⑨ An applicant who is planning to do fieldwork or internship etc. for more than 90 days in a country other than Japan or those who are expecting to take a long-term leave of absence at the time of application.
- ⑩ Those who have completed a doctorate program and do not plan on pursuing further academic degrees.

(11) Miscellaneous

While they are studying in Japan, applicants are expected, as someone who will contribute to the globalization of Japan, to broadly participate in regional schools and activities to contribute towards the mutual understanding between their home country and Japan. Furthermore, they are expected to maintain a close link with the universities they studied at even after they have graduated and cooperate in various manners, such as answering questionnaires etc. Also, on returning to their home country, take part in the various activities organized by the Japanese government’s missions overseas to enhance the relationship between Japan and their home country.

2. Period of Scholarships

The period of scholarship shall be within the standard program duration of the program they will be registered in once they arrive in Japan.

※1 Applications to extend the period of scholarship may be possible should the recipient wish to proceed to the doctorate program using the framework of priority placement associated with the selected Master's and doctorate program.

※2 It is not possible to extend the period of scholarship should a recipient wish to proceed to a higher degree course from their selected bachelor or professional degree program.

※3 Should a recipient selected for the International Priority Graduate Program wish to apply for the Japanese Government Scholarship for Research Students (University Recommendation) [General Application] at the end of the scholarship period instead of an extension, they must consider point ③ of paragraph (10) in "1. Qualifications above".

3. Scholarship Benefits

(1) Scholarships

- ① JPY 117,000/month (for undergraduate student)
- ② JPY 144,000/month (for a student in a Master's or a professional degree program)
- ③ JPY 145,000/month (for a student in a doctorate program)

* an additional monthly stipend of 2,000 or 3,000 yen may be added to those students undertaking study or research in some designated regions of the country.

* The scholarship will not be paid to a recipient who is on a leave of absence or long absent from his or her university.

(2) Traveling Costs.

Not all scholarship recipients will be offered the travel allowance by MEXT, but some will be awarded the travel allowance. The recipient who will be awarded the travel allowance should follow the rules in below.

- ① Transportation to Japan: recipients awarded travel allowance will be provided, according to the itinerary and route designated for them by MEXT, with an economy class air ticket from the international airport closest to their place of residence to one of the international airports of Tokyo (Narita (NRT) or Haneda (HND)) (or an international airport the recipient's host university normally uses). Please note that the cost of transportation from the recipient's residence to the nearest international airport; airport tax and surcharges; other special local taxes incurred by travelling; local travel expenses within Japan (including any costs if transferring by air); travel insurance premiums; baggage and unaccompanied baggage; are the sole responsibility of the recipient.

MEXT or the university will provide an economy class air ticket to Narita International Airport (NRT) or the closest international airport to the university from a third country through which the applicant obtained their "Student" visa, if Japan does not have an overseas diplomatic establishment in their country of nationality. However, any costs incurred in travelling to the third country, travels within the third country and cost of accommodations incurred is the sole responsibility of the recipient.

The recipient's residence is taken to be the current address given in the application. However, if a change of address is known beforehand (limited to within the recipient's home country), residence will be taken as the latter. Moreover, an air ticket will not be provided if the recipient travels to Japan from a country other than that of their nationality.

Air tickets will not be provided for travel from a third country for any reasons other than for obtaining visas.

- ② Transportation from Japan: In principle, MEXT will issue airline tickets to recipients who return to their home country within the final month of the scholarship period as specified in "2. Period of Scholarship" above upon application following their graduation from university or completion of their research. Recipients will be provided with an economy class air ticket for a flight from Narita International Airport (or an international airport the recipient's university normally uses) to the international airport closest to their place of return (in principle, within their home country). Please be aware that costs incurred for transportation from the recipient's residence to the nearest international airport in Japan; airport tax and surcharges; other special local taxes incurred when travelling; local travel expenses within Japan (including any costs if transferring by air); insurance premiums for travel to Japan; sending baggage as well as unaccompanied baggage; are the sole responsibility of the recipient.

- ③ Recipients who return to their home country before the end of the scholarship period for personal reasons or because of items as stipulated in 4. Suspension of Scholarship Payment below will not be provided with return airfare.

Note

Traveling expenses will not be included in the travel allowance if a recipient decides to remain in Japan (for example; continuing the education at a higher level or entering employment in Japan) after the period of scholarship ends and temporarily leaves Japan.

(3) School Fees

The host university will pay for fees for matriculation, tuition and entrance examinations for recipients.

4. Suspension of Scholarship Payment

The scholarship will be cancelled in the following cases. If a recipient receives the scholarship even though he or she is judged ineligible due to one of the following reasons, the recipient may be ordered to return the amount of scholarship money received. Please note that payment of the scholarship may be stopped during the time decision is being made on the disciplinary action.

- ① If any portion of the recipient's application documents is found to be false or wrongly stated.
- ② If a recipient is in breach of his or her pledge made to the Minister of MEXT (Monbukagakusho).
- ③ Given life or more than one year of imprisonment with or without hard labor having been convicted of breaking the law in Japan.

- ④ Expelled, suspended or given warnings or receive equivalent form of punishment from the university following disciplinary action according to the rules and regulations of the university or removed from the registry.
- ⑤ If a student's academic performance is considered unacceptable, if the student has been suspended, or is deemed not to be able to complete the program within the standard duration due to extended absence.
- ⑥ If a recipient does not obtain a new "College student" status before travelling or the recipient's resident status of "College Student", changes to any other status;
- ⑦ If a recipient receives another scholarship (except for a scholarship designated for research expenses);
- ⑧ If a recipient proceeds to a higher academic program without obtaining permission to extend the scholarship period from MEXT;
- ⑨ If a recipient leaves the host university or is transferred to another graduate school;
- ⑩ If a student's grade point average for a year falls below 2.30 or a level that the university specifies.

5. Recommendation Procedure and Screening

- (1) Recommendation: Upon internal screening, university presidents should recommend outstanding applicants in need of scholarships, to the Minister of MEXT.–
- (2) Screening: The Selection Committee will screen applicants recommended by the presidents. Based on the results, MEXT will decide on recipients and their period of scholarships.
After the recipients have been selected, the presidents will tell them to contact Japanese embassy or consulate general in their home country.
- (3) Application Documents:

	(Original)	(Copy)
1) Application form (double-sided)	1
2) Field of Study and Study Program (double-sided)	1
3) Passport-type photo taken within the last 6 months (4.5 x 3.5 cm, upper-body, full-faced, without a cap) Write name and nationality on the back and glue it to the application form. A photo in electronic data format acceptable)	1
4) A copy of a document that proves applicant's nationality (passport, citizenship card, etc.)	1
5) An official transcript from the last university attended (undergraduate or graduate). Please refer to Note 1.	1
6) An official transcript for the course they are currently enrolled in. ※Only for current students	1
7) Graduation certificate or diploma of the last university attended (undergraduate or graduate)	1
8) Record showing the applicant's academic excellence at the last university attended. (For example, GPA, class placement, individual ranking or any other indicators showing the applicant's academic performance at the university) Please refer to Note 2.	1
9) Letter of recommendation from dean or above (addressed to the president of the university in Japan)	1
10) Abstract of thesis (should be concise and to the point)	1
11) Proof of language ability or other special skills (for example, score of TOEFL, IELTS, JLPT). Please refer to Note 3.	1

Note 1:

- Transcript showing academic performance, including the university program enrolled in at the time of application.(Not including the non-regular program)
- If academic performance includes the program enrolled in at the time of application and a preceding program, please submit the entire transcript of the preceding program from enrollment to completion.
- If an applicant has a history of transfer during his or her enrolled programs that are subject to calculation for grade points, please submit the transcript of the first enrolled program.
- Please submit an official document that specifies and explains the grading system.

Note 2:

- If the transcript described in 5) proves the applicant's academic excellence through specific indicators, it will be considered acceptable.

Note 3:

- If the applicant has no TOEFL or Japanese language proficiency test scores, he or she must have their (foreign) language skills judged objectively and have a proof issued by their university and submit it along with other necessary documents.

(4) Others

- 1) These documents must be written in either Japanese or English. They should be created in A4 format using software such as MS Word and must be printed double-sided (duplex printing). A document written in any other language must be attached with a Japanese translation.
- 2) Submitted documents will not be returned.
- 3) An application will not be considered unless all application forms and necessary documents are completed correctly and all accompanying documents are complete.
- 4) In some countries, a graduation certificate and other documents are issued by a government administrative office. In this case, the host university may need to confirm with a student's previous university that the certificate issued contains no erroneous information.
- 5) The host university should ensure that the applicants are in good health.
- 6) When applicants are selected, their private information (name, nationality, affiliated university, graduate school/faculty, their major, period of stay, and career path after completing the program, etc.) may be used by the Japanese government or shared with related agencies for the purpose of promoting studying in Japan, as well as provided to third parties within acceptable limits of purpose of use.

Be aware that unless the selected applicants agree to this use of their private information, they will not be accepted.

- 7) MEXT will cancel the scholarship if the university recommends applicants who have been deported in the past and a Japanese Embassy cannot issue their "student" visa by the time designated by MEXT.

6. Notification

(1) Notification of the screening results will be sent in writing to university presidents in June of 2020.

MEXT does not send a notice to individual applicants.

(2) Please be aware that if a student's grade point average for a year falls below 2.30 or a level that the university specifies the applicants will lose the right to be a recipient of a Japanese Government Scholarship.