The University of Tokyo's Graduate School of Public Policy (GraSPP) will be holding a live online session via Zoom for prospective applicants to the Master of Public Policy, International Program (MPP/IP). In this session, participants will find an overview of GraSPP and learning opportunities and hear from the faculty and students their perspectives on the current policy challenges facing us.

The two-year Master of Public Policy, International Program (MPP/IP) offers an extensive and diverse menu of courses taught in English. The program provides aspiring public policy professionals with an opportunity to learn cutting-edge multidisciplinary approaches to addressing public policy challenges.
