Digital Governance
Speakers for January 16, 2021   16:50 - 18:35

Class 10 "The role of individuals and communities"

Daniel Seng
ダニエル・セン

Director of Centre for Technology, Robotics, Artificial Intelligence & the Law, National University of Singapore
シンガポール国立大学 テクノロジー・ロボティクス・人工知能と法センター所長

Prof. Daniel Seng teaches on information technology and intellectual property law at NUS. He graduated from NUS and Oxford. His doctoral thesis with Stanford University involved the use of machine learning, natural language processing and data analytics. He is a special consultant to the World Intellectual Property Organization and has published papers on differential privacy, electronic evidence, AI and machine learning. He has been a member of various Singapore government committees that undertook legislative reforms in the areas such as electronic commerce, cybercrimes, digital copyright and etc.

Haruyuki Seki
関 治之

CEO / Representative of Code for Japan

Mr. Seki has been working as a geolocation service developer since 2002. He is a founder of Code for Japan, the biggest civic tech community in Japan. Also, He is the CEO of Georepublic Japan that provides location-based system developing services using opensource GIS as well as the CEO of HackCamp that helps organizations' open innovation strategies. He is well known as a community manager for solving social issues through technology tools in Japan.

一般社団法人Code for Japan代表理事

「テクノロジーで、地域をより住みやすく」をモットーに、様々なコミュニティで活動。住民参加型のテクノロジー活用「シビックテック」を推進するほか、オープンソースGISを使ったシステム開発企業Georepublic Japanと、企業のオープンイノベーションを支援するHackCampの代表取締役社長も務める。

For details: http://www.pp.u-tokyo.ac.jp/events/2020-10-16-27279/