

Course Memorandum

November 18, 2014

Course Case Study (Paradigm Change for Asia's Emerging Economies I)
Course No. 5140721 Winter 2014
Instructor Toshiro Nishizawa
Subject Course schedule in November and December

Dear Students,

The course schedule towards the end of the year is as follows. Please let me know your idea, suggestion or proposal to ensure that the course give you a maximum opportunity to learn what you need and provide each of you utmost benefits.

...	Monday, November 24 (Labor Thanksgiving Day, substitute)	no class
Day 7	Monday, December 1	Discussion on specific issues and cases, associated with feedback on students' mid-term reports; and a report of discussions at the symposium on "FDI for the Future: Human Capital, Innovation, and Competitiveness" (November 24) in Jakarta.
...	Monday, December 8	no class
Day 8	Wednesday, December 10 make-up class (18:30-20:10)	Guest lecture by Mr. Ichiro Otani, former Head of the IMF Office in China on Chinese economy
Day 9	Monday, December 15	Discussion on specific issues and cases
Day 10	Monday, December 22	Discussion on specific issues and cases

Tuesday, December 16 Individual consultation by appointment
15:00-18:00

Wednesday, December 17 Individual consultation by appointment
15:00-18:00

† You might wish to seek a specific date and time by e-mail. If neither of the dates and timeframe fit your preference, you might also seek an alternative date and time for individual consultation.

Best regards,

Toshiro Nishizawa