

PREREQUISITE FOR TAKING THIS COURSE AND CLASS SCHEDULE

Life at an IFI: Understanding, Designing and Debating Macroeconomic Policy

Taking into account the nature of the course involving intensive writing, one-on-one consultation and mock job interviews, the ideal number of students would be up to around twenty. For this reason, if the number of applicants far exceeds this limit, screening process might be introduced after the closing of Course Registration Period for A2-term courses (Friday, November 13). Also, please be informed that Macroeconomics for Public Policy [<http://www.pp.u-tokyo.ac.jp/courses/2015/5113018.html>] or its equivalent is a prerequisite for taking this course.

Venue: Ad 710 (Seminar Room 3), 7th Floor, Administration Bureau Building 2
