

Summer Internship at Asian Development Bank Institute (ADBI)

<http://www.adbi.org/>

Contact Department: Capacity Building and Training Department

Interview: Selection will be made following an interview at ADBI.

Internship period: late July-September

Number of interns: 1

Eligibility:

Students studying at GraSPP who are from any ADB member countries, including Japanese nationals. ADB-JSP Scholars are not eligible.

<http://www.adb.org/about/members>

Language skills required:

Good written and spoken English. Japanese language skills not required

Job Description:

Research assistance is need for preparing a research paper on the middle-income trap in Asia. The internship provides a good opportunity for someone interested in gaining experience in an international organization and developing his/her research skills and gaining experience.

Ideal candidate:

(i) analytical and research skills; (ii) quantitative and statistics skills; (iii) able to use Excel (and possibly Stata) data programs; (iv) good writing skills; (v) ability to work independently; (vi) interested in issues of economic development in Asia.

Condition:

To be determined.

Application:

please send CV with your photo and statement of interest to the following address by Fri 6 June.

E-mail address: intl-affairs@pp.u-tokyo.ac.jp