

INTERNSHIP INFORMATION FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Name of Institution	GR Japan K.K.
Department	N/A
Period of Internship	Flexible
Language	English, Japanese
Number of Interns	Flexible
Content	Join our team on policy-related projects, including policy research, preparing presentations, generating content for clients and preparation for the speaker events.
Eligibility	GR Japan is the leading government relations and public affairs firm in Tokyo. We offer a full range of government relations and related services, from policy and issue monitoring, stakeholder mapping and in-depth intelligence, to stakeholder outreach, advocacy and public affairs campaigns. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The applicant must be a GraSPP international student.</li> <li>2. Fluent in both spoken and written English and Japanese</li> <li>3. Excellent communication skills and ability to work in a team</li> </ol> Keen interest in Japanese policy, politics and international business
Comments from the institution	We are currently looking for a dynamic and bilingual intern to join our team. Suitable interns who have satisfied our requirements must have a passion for policy and public affairs. An internship at GR Japan can help students and new graduates bridge the gap between university and the working world. During the program, interns will gain practical experience in public affairs and government relations which will benefit them in their career development.
Condition	This position is unpaid, but transportation costs and meals to be covered at JPY 1,000 per day.
Selection	There will be an interview with GR Japan after shortlisted.