

Class 9 “Case Study: Governance by Regulation, Principles and Technology”

Kalliopi Spyridaki
カリオピ・スピリダキ

Chief Privacy Strategist, Europe & Asia Pacific, SAS SAS Europe & Asia Pacific, チーフ・プライバシー・ストラテジスト

Ms. Kalliopi Spyridaki joined SAS in 2007, and now focuses on public policy and privacy compliance in Europe and Asia Pacific. She works with regulators and policymakers to help shape laws and government policies related to data and artificial intelligence that impact SAS and its customers. Before joining SAS, she worked as a legal adviser and public policy expert in various firms and organizations focusing on data protection law, competition law and consumer law. She holds a law degree from the University of Athens, Greece and a master's degree from the University of Tübingen, Germany.

Kojin Oshiba
大柴 行人

Co-founder, Robust Intelligence

Mr. Kojin Oshiba is a co-founder at Robust Intelligence, an AI security startup company building products to tackle threats on AI systems and mitigate their risks and providing AI security solutions to industry leading technology companies, financial institutions and government agencies. Previously, he was a co-founder of Tokyo branch of QuantCo, a data science consulting firm. He holds a BA in Computer Science and Statistics from Harvard College, where he conducted research on robust machine learning and published multiple papers.

Robust Intelligence共同創業者

サンフランシスコベースのAI Securityスタートアップ企業、Robust Intelligenceの共同創業者。
ハーバード大学コンピューターサイエンス・統計学学士。