

UNIAC 2021

WHAT DOES COVID-19 MEAN FOR DIFFERENT COMMUNITIES? FIND OUT IN OUR FIRESIDE CHATS WITH DR. CATHERINE CHAN PO LING AND PROF. AKIO TAKAHARA, WHERE WE WILL DISCUSS THE IMPACTS AND IMPLICATIONS OF COVID-19 FOR PUBLIC HEALTHCARE SYSTEMS AND EAST ASIAN SOCIETIES.

COVID-19 AND THE WORLD

Date: 13 March, 2021

Venue: Zoom

Please sign up via
link or QR code:
tinyurl.com/c8jrdnch

10:00-11:30 HKT; 11:00-12:30 JST

Dr. Catherine Chan Po Ling

Dr. Chan is a medical practitioner in Hong Kong currently under specialty training at the Prince of Wales Hospital in Hong Kong. She recently spoke about Hong Kong's experience with COVID-19 at the forum, "COVID-19 What's Next?"

16:30-17:30 HKT; 17:30-18:30 JST

Prof. Akio Takahara

Prof. Takahara has served as a professor with the University of Tokyo since 2005. He specialises in international relations in East Asia and has published an article in the Shinano Mainichi Shimbun examining the impact of COVID-19 on China.

Presented jointly by UNISC Japan and UNISC Hong Kong