OECD internship information

The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) is an international organisation comprised of 38 member countries, that works to build better policies for better lives. Our mission is to promote policies that will improve the economic and social well-being of people around the world. Together with governments, policymakers and citizens, we work on establishing evidence-based international standards and finding solutions to a range of social, economic, and environmental challenges. From improving economic performance and creating jobs to fostering strong education and fighting international tax evasion, we provide a unique forum and knowledge hub for data and analysis, exchange of experiences, best-practice sharing, and advice on public policies and international standard-setting.

The OECD Internship Programme is designed to bring highly qualified and motivated students with diverse backgrounds into the Organisation to work on projects linked to the Strategic Orientations of the Secretary-General and to support the corporate functions of the Organisation. Its main goal is to allow successful candidates to improve their analytical and technical skills in an international environment.

Successful candidates will carry out research and provide support to Policy Analysts in one of the following areas. Please note that the list is non-exhaustive.

Agriculture and Fisheries

Artificial Intelligence

Bribery and corruption

Competition

Corporate Governance

Development

Digitalisation

Economy

Education and Skills

Employment

Energy

Environment

Finance

Gender and Diversity

Health

Industry, Innovation and Entrepreneurship

Insurance and Pensions

International Migration

Investment

Nuclear Energy

Public Governance

Regional Development

Regulatory Reform

Science and Technology

Statistics

Tax

Tourism

Trade and Agriculture

Transport

For internships in the corporate functions, successful candidates will be involved in one of the following areas:

Communications, Media & Public Relations

Event Management

Finance, Budget and Accounting

Human Resources

Information Technology

Legal services

Office Administration

Translation

Main responsibilities

Research, data analysis and drafting

Participate in the preparation of studies and documents

Carry out research and review of existing material

Collect, organise and evaluate data

Contribute to the production of documents, working papers and publications resulting from the above activities, including drafting notes and preparing technical annexes

Liaison and outreach

Participate in meetings and seminars

Establish and maintain professional contacts and build networks with officials in national administrations, researchers, other international organisations and member country Delegations Undertake other tasks as required

Interns in support of the corporate functions will be involved in:

Event organisation, communication, planning and evaluation

Ensure relevant social media presence and the online activity on different channels

Prepare background briefings, presentations and meeting documentation

Establish and maintain relationships with key contacts

Advice on legal frameworks, human resource management, finance and budgeting, IT Support with office administration, archive and filing, drafting minutes, organising meetings, missions, etc.

Undertake other tasks as required.

Candidate profile

Academic background

Full-time student in a discipline related to the work of the OECD

Professional background

International experience through studies, internships or professional activities would be an asset.

> Tools

Solid quantitative and computer skills, knowledge of Microsoft Office

Languages

Excellent command of one of the two official languages of the OECD (English and French) and working knowledge of, or willingness to learn the other. Knowledge of other languages would be an asset.

Key competencies

- Strong analytical skills demonstrated by academic success and professional achievements
- Strong interest in the work of OECD in promoting international co-operation
- Ability to plan and conduct research independently
- Good organisational skills, ability to work effectively based on general instructions, with the capacity to prioritise tasks, often according to tight deadlines
- Proven ability to work in a multicultural and team-oriented environment and to adapt to changing working methods and technologies
- Very good drafting and communication skills

Internship working modalities

OECD's Directorates have the possibility to onboard interns both remotely and in a hybrid form. The working modalities are agreed upon between the Directorate and the student, with the possibility to work on-site in line with the OECD's guidance.

Important note

 Kindly be aware that students cannot apply to the OECD Internship Generic online vacancy if preselected as a candidate from GraSPP. Students' profiles will be considered once and only through this preferential recruitment channel at OECD. However, students who have not been preselected by GraSPP are encouraged to apply online to the Generic vacancy advertised on OECD's website. • Due to the high volume of applications expected, the OECD Internship Office is not in a position to provide individual feedback. Therefore, only shortlisted candidates will be contacted by Directorates for an interview. If you are not contacted by Directorate hiring teams within three months following your application's submission to OECD, you can assume your application has not been retained on this occasion and you can apply again according to the calendar on our website. Please remember you will still need to be enrolled as a student during the internship period.

Minimum requirements

- Candidates must be enrolled in a full-time degree programme for the duration of the internship in a field or discipline related to the work of the OECD (see the List of departments and special bodies for further details).
- Candidates should be proficient in English and/or French.
- Candidates should be available for a minimum period of one month on a full-time basis (40h per week). Kindly note that the duration of an internship is limited to six months with a possibility of one extension up to a maximum of twelve months.

For more information on the OECD Internship Programme please visit the links below.

Internship brochure

Internship video

Frequently Asked Questions