

INTERNSHIP INFORMATION FOR GRASPP STUDENTS

Name of Institution	Asian Development Bank Institute https://www.adb.org/adbi/about
Department	1. Research 2. Capacity Building
Working Hours	9:30 - 17:30 Monday to Friday
Language	English
Number of Interns	TBD
Content	ADBI is a subsidiary organization of the Asian Development Bank. The unpaid internship aims to deepen students' knowledge and understanding of ADB and ADBI through involvement with its various programs and activities in economics and development. Interns will work with their supervisors providing research by gathering information and data analysis, supporting administrative works, etc.
Eligibility	1. The applicant must be a GraSPP student. 2. The applicant must have excellent communication skills (verbal and written) in English.
Other notes from the institution	1. Highly-motivated student. 2. Preference is given to students with a major in Economics or International Development 3. Generally remote internship (not in ADBI's premises)
Condition	Unpaid - no payments for the internship assignment, commuting or lunch will be provided by the institution.
Selection	Please include the information below in your Cover Letter; 1. Which department you are willing to do the internship. 2. Any particular researcher you wish to work with. An interview with faculty members will be arranged later. GraSPP will recommend the shortlisted applicants to the institution for the final selection. Screening and interviews with the institution will be organized afterward.